9. For your own security and the flight's safety, please do not accept any items from anyone as you will be held responsible and accountable for the contents of any of the items found in your custody. Ensure that your bags remain with you until the time the airline accepts the bags for carriage and also make sure that an object that you don't know is not placed in the bags.

10. Check-in process at the Addis Ababa Bole International Airport will start three hours before the scheduled time of departure. The Economy class counters will be closed one hour before the scheduled time of departure and the Cloud Nine counters will be closed 45 minutes before the scheduled time of departure. Thus, please arrive at the airport before the counters are closed.

We strongly recommend that passengers should arrive at the Washington Dulles Airport 4 hours prior to departure in order to allow ample time for the queuing and security clearance. The airline reserves the right to refuse boarding of any passenger arriving at the check-in counter later than two hours prior to departure even if they have confirmed booking and tickets.

11. As per the customs regulations of the United States of America:

11.1 Any animal meat (except cooked chicken and fish), fruits, vegetables, plants and soil are strictly forbidden to carry into the USA. We would like to give notice to all passengers, that heavy penalty will be imposed on passengers traveling with the above items. However, red-pepper, powder bean, butter, etc... are allowed to be carried, if they are well packed.

11.2 Passengers traveling into or out of the USA with an amount of money or monetary instruments more than USD10,000.00(CAD12,500.00-13,500.00) are required to declare the amount by filling out customs forms designed for this purpose.

12. Ethiopian Airlines will not be liable/responsible for any fines and measures passengers encounter for violating customs regulation(s).

13. Please note that passengers who continue their travel beyond Washington D.C. shall collect their bags, clear customs and pass through security check before going to their connecting flights. Otherwise, the baggage will be left behind until such security clearance is obtained.

14. Please make sure that you have the address and telephone number of the place that you are going to stay. If you don't provide this information upon check in at the airport and or upon arrival at Washington D.C., you may not be accepted for the flight or your entry into the U.S may be delayed.

U.S Department of Transportation (DOT) &The Canadian Transportation Agency (CTA) Baggage rule

When the origin or destination of a ticket is a U.S./CA (United states of America or Canada) point, the baggage provisions of the airline selected at the beginning of the itinerary must apply throughout the journey, regardless of stopover.

In the case of codeshare flights that include a point in the U.S/CA (United states of America or Canada), the baggage provision of the marketing carrier applies.
